

TEXAS FUNERAL SERVICE COMMISSION

Legal Attestation

Your Mortuary Law Exam will begin on the next page. REMEMBER - Your behavior regarding the contents of this online exam could subject you to penalties under the law. Please act responsibly.

You must select "ACCEPT" below and click on the next button below to continue.

I am affirming that the person who is completing this online exam is the license applicant whose name is registered in this online account. As the applicant, I understand that no one else may take this exam on my behalf and that I am accountable and responsible for the accuracy of this attestation. I will not provide or receive assistance on this exam. I will not copy any information from the exam nor will I discuss or record the content of exam items in any manner, including, but not limited to, writing items down during or after the exam, talking to colleagues about specific questions on the exam, and printing or copying exam questions and/or answers. I realize that divulging any information about the exam is considered unprofessional conduct under 22 Texas Admin. Code §203.45(b)(6) and could result in a violation of Texas Occ. Code §651.451 and Texas Penal Code §37.10. Violation of this attestation will result in Commission action and the possible loss of my license or privilege to practice as a funeral director and/or embalmer.

Accept - I accept under penalties of law and Commission action.

<< Back

Next >>